

ASSOCIATION OF TEACHER EDUCATORS-INDIANA
Indiana Teacher Educator's Hall of Fame

Nominations Due: June 1, 2016

Association of Teacher Educators-Indiana (ATE-I) is now accepting nominations for inductees into the INDIANA TEACHER EDUCATOR HALL OF FAME. The Hall of Fame was established by ATE-I to give recognition to teacher educators and persons in other vocations who have given a lifetime of outstanding and dedicated service to teacher education in the State of Indiana.

Criteria for Selection

Inductees into the Indiana Teacher Educators' Hall of Fame must be nominated and must have met the following criteria:

- Spent the majority of their working life in some capacity in the field of teacher education in Indiana
- Been involved in teacher education for a minimum of 15 years
- Been retired or within six months of retirement (in some instances a posthumous award will be granted)
- Demonstrated leadership in teacher education as exemplified but not limited to the following:
  - ✓ Active participation in state and national associations
  - ✓ Visible participation in state and national offices and on committees
  - ✓ Previous recognition by professional teacher education groups
  - ✓ Publication of document or other media products
  - ✓ Other creative endeavors or noteworthy achievements.

Nominations for the Indiana Teacher Educators' Hall of Fame may be made by anyone directly involved in the teacher education process; nominators are not required to be members of ATE-I. No more than three individuals will be inducted annually, except by vote of the Executive Board.

Nominations will be ranked, and recommendations for induction will subsequently be made by a committee that is appointed by the ATE-I Executive Board. Final approval of each nominee will require a two-thirds vote by the Executive Board. Awards will be made during the Fall Teacher Education Conference, October 14-16, 2016, at the Clarion Inn & Conference Center, Columbus, IN. The selected winners will receive two complimentary dinners for the conference awards banquet October 15, 2016.
